

A VERY CROOKED CHRISTMAS

Tuesday 24th November, 6.30pm

St. Mark's Church, Barrow in Furness, LA14 1BZ

Admission free with tickets available from St. Mark's Church and online at www.ticketsource.com/st-marks-barrow

Riding Lights Theatre Company presents a nativity like never before!

A VERY CROOKED CHRISTMAS

A magical star is seen in the Eastern skies pointing the way to a secret treasure. Two rascally shepherds and their naughty sheep, Jumper, hatch a cheeky plan to steal the star and make their fortunes.

But their perfect plan is about to get derailed by amazing angels, crazy carpenters and a wise man with a wool allergy. The first Christmas is about to get messy in this hilarious story filled with heart and hope.

Join Riding Lights Theatre Company as they bring a crooked comedy, jam-packed with surprising shepherds, silly sheep, slapstick songs, a spectacular star and a secret treasure to be found at the very heart of Christmas.

This inventive and original take on the Nativity story will delight audiences of all ages. It's so good, you'll want Christmas every year!

A Very Crooked Christmas is the new fast and friendly festive farce and the perfect way to look towards Christmas.