New Bishop of Penrith is Announced

The Rev. Dr Emma Ineson, at present Principal of Trinity College Bristol, is to be the next Bishop of Penrith. Emma will be ordained bishop on 27th February 2019; she will begin engaging with the Diocese over the Autumn but will start work properly after her consecration

She will be based in Kendal and will have particular responsibility for the county's God for All strategy; that everyone in Cumbria 'of all ages and backgrounds' has the opportunity to know more about God and God's purpose in their lives that they may become followers of Jesus in a Christian community.

Pentecost Service in the Park

Next Sunday, 3.00pm in Barrow Park at the Bandstand

Organised by Churches Together in Barrow and District. Martin Cooper of Abbey Road Baptist Church will be speaking at the open air Service which includes songs sung by Furness Churches United Choir. Everyone welcome! If wet the Service will be held at Abbey Road Baptist Church.

Signs and Wonders

Two concerts here at St. Mark's with Watoto Children's Choir. Tuesday 22nd May and Wednesday 23rd May, 7.00pm.

Admission by Free Ticket available from Alan McCracken or Oxford Street Post Office.

There will be a collection to support the choir. See poster in the Foyer for more details of the choir and it's activities.

Thy Kingdom Come ~ 10-20 May 2018

Saturday 19th May. There will be a series of Prayer Journeys across Barrow converging at Abbey Road Baptist Church at 4.00pm for a Prayer and Praise Celebration followed by a Faith Tea together, please if you can bring something to share.
