Paul Bell

Paul Bell, a Nottingham based singer and songwriter makes a welcome return to Barrow and Sunday Night Live.

Paul is a seasoned live performer connecting with audiences across the UK and beyond. His concerts are a mixture of laughter, beautiful acoustic music and thoughtful reflections on the stories we share.

Over ten years, Paul has produced and released five independent albums and an EP of Christmas music, which bring his unique lyrical approach to bear on subjects as diverse as relationships, earthquakes, being four years old and somewhat infamously, biscuits!

Recorded in Sweden and England his fifth and latest Album sees Paul in reflective mood, pondering on legacy, kindness and the things that really matter.

With songs from his latest album along with older classics you're guaranteed a great night out. Why not make it even better...
come with a friend or two!

What is Sunday Night Live?

Live entertainment organised by St. Mark's Church at Costa Coffee, Dalton Road, Barrow in Furness on the first Sunday of each month 7.00pm - 8.30pm, with doors opening at 6.30pm.

Each Sunday Night Live evening involves a time to drink coffee and meet people, some live entertainment and an opportunity for you to consider something of faith. All in a relaxed, informal, coffee filled atmosphere.
